SCHULTE

TRADE MARK.

All Goods Bearing our Trade Mark Guaranteed. Use Hageman's Butter Off for cocking A clean and beautiful substitute for lard and butter for cocking purposes, being really an improvement on these arthries when they are pure, to say nothing when they are unwholesome, which is too often the case.

It is said and used on its own mertic as a refined cotton off, less carefully refined, to put up and sold by manufacturers and packers as olive off.

For frying all kinds or meets

For frying all kinds of ments, dysters, doughnuts, etc., wait until the oil becomes beiling bet, thus preventing the absorption of grease by the article gooded, as in so commonly the case where lard is used. For shortening bread, cakes, rolls, because the control of the case where lard is used, for shortening bread, cakes, rolls, because the control of the case where the case where had been a used to be controlled to the case of the c
